No. R. 2707-44—Agri. 31-08-4, dated Bangalore, 7th November 1908.

Order.—As ragi, the common staple food grain of the people, has been selling at less than twelve seers per rupee in the districts of Bangalore, Kolar, Tumkur, and Kadur, the Government are pleased to sanction, for a period of three months in the first instance, an extra allowance at the following rates to all whole-time officials on Civil Establishments, whose pay does not exceed Rs. 20 per mensem, with effect from the 1st October 1908:—

(i) to officials drawing a pay exceeding Rs. 16 but not exceeding Rs. 20 per mensem—Rs. 2 per mensem.

(ii) to officials drawing a pay not exceeding Rs. 16 per mensem—Re. 1 per mensem.

When the pay is less than Rs. 5 per mensem, the extra allowance will be increased so as to bring up the aggregate pay and allowance to Rs. 6 per mensem.

2. The allowance is admissible to men who are officiating or in temporary employment, and also to piece workers in the Government Press, provided that they are drawing rates of salary which have been fixed with reference to normal circumstances; but the allowance is not admissible to men absent on leave, or under suspension, nor to part-time servants who are only engaged by Government for specific duties which do not prevent their earning money in other ways. In the case of men drawing overtime allowances, such allowances are taken into account in determining their pay for the purposes of this order.

3. The measure is calculated to involve an additional expenditure of about Rs. 13,377 a month in the proportions shown in the margin. As there is no provision for this in the budget, it will be met by reappropriations, regarding which separate orders will issue.
